WASHINGTON BOWLERS WILL GO TO RICHMOND ON FEB. 21

Capital Men Prefer That Date
For Their Big Tenpin Tournament.

By KIRK C. MILLER.

In all probability the teams representing Washington will roll in the intercity tenpin tournament beginning at Richmond, Va., on February 18, will go to the Southern city on Saturday, February 21, to bowl their games. Secretary Fields, of the Washington City Association, has asked that this date be reserved for the teams going from the National Capital, and there is every reason to believe that his request will be granted.

No announcement has come from Baltimore as to the dates for the tournament entered from the Monumental City in the Richmond tournament. Secretary C. R. LeScott, of Baltimore, was in Washington Tuesday, discussing the details of the big event with James Field. A conservative estimate today places the number of teams that will go to Richmond from Washington at ten or twelve. These will all be five-man teams, and from their ranks the single and double teams will be selected.

District National Bank forfeited a set to the team from the United States Trust Company rollers, in the Mercantile League. The Trust Company bowled its game, however, and the best individual work was that of J. H. Rice, who rolled 115, 125 and 118 for his three games.

No changes were effected in the standings of the Arcade League when Imperials took two out of three from Columbia. Both of these are in the second division, but the class of their games is improving. Imperials, particularly, having a good chance to slide over into the first division. In Wednesday night's game, Columbia rolled 122 and 120, and set of 21 was the best marks made.

Distribution made rapid strides toward the leadership when it won three straight from the present champions, West Station, in the Washington Gas Light League. B. H. Huns turned in the best individual string, 107, in that set while Huns' game of 294 was the highest rolled in the match, while installation won two games out of three from Commercial. Huns' total was 794.

Engineers paved the way throughout their game with Woodworkers in the Patent Attorneys' League. The former's roll gives them a substantial lead on first place, and the other two teams will have a hard job to make good on the threat of Engineers from the leadership.

Secretary "Ike" Brown, of the Georgetown Commercial League set up a new record in that circuit for high game when he contributed a total of

SHAKE-UP IS DUE FOR SOCCER ELEVEN

Captain McGinty Out With Injury, But Hopes To Be in Next Game.

A shake-up is due in the Washington Association football eleven, in preparation for the coming game here with the Penn. St. George on February 8. Capt. John McGinty is suffering from injury received during the game in Baltimore on Sunday, owing to the rough work of one of the Baltimore players.

With three weeks practice, the Washington eleven expects to give a better account of itself in the game with the Penn. St. George on February 8. Capt. John McGinty is suffering from injury received during the game in Baltimore on Sunday, owing to the rough work of one of the Baltimore players.

REVISED BASEBALL RULES.

Rule 62.

Section 1.—The Field Umpire.

The field umpire shall take such position on the field which, in his judgment, are best suited for interfering with the view of the fans. He shall be the judge of all close plays occurring in the outfield. He shall render all decisions on the bases, except those which the umpire decides to render himself.

Section 2.—The umpire shall make himself obnoxious as possible to the fans, and shall have authority to remove and fine any player who looks as if he were thinking of something to say to the umpire, when in the umpire's judgment he should not be looking as if he were thinking of something to say.

LeScott Confers With Secretary Fields Over Details of Meeting.

He and now have returned in full force to enjoy the remainder of the season. Wednesday night, General Superintendent LeScott's office had an easy time of it, a clean sweep of the boards when it was pitted against the quint from the Engineering Department. Luckett's string of 122 was an example of the best individual rolling seen in the match.

Rolling at the temple, the Colonial League placed a close match between Pioneers and Continentals, the latter leading the first two games on Pioneers' winner's game of 21 led the individual work.

When Walker rolled a set of 343 in the Patent Attorneys' League, he established a new mark to go down in the annals of the young organization. In his third string, Walker turned in a score of 122, which came within one pin of the high game for the circuit. Brickle, who rolls anchor for W. G. and M., probably did the next best work when his set went slightly over the 300 mark.

General Baking Company, of the Commercial League put itself in a good position to succeed Wednesday night, by taking three straight from the Woodward & Lothrop quint. Heinman, of the bakers, gave his teammates something to think about in contributing eight to the game and set, 132 and 133, for the match.

Some of the closest competition of the season was seen Wednesday night in the Departmental Duckpin League when War took two out of three from United States Marine Corps. By the narrowest of margins. But a single pin separated the two teams at the end of the first round, the score being 493 to 492, favor of the War quint. The latter club won the second round by a margin of one three pins, and then dropped the finale to the soldiers by a difference of eight pins.

Bureau staged some of the highest individual rolling of the year when it took the first and third games from War in the Departmental Tenpin League. More teams, in fact, than have been the rule of late—this fact speaking well for the grade lately.

In the last game of the week in the Post Duckpin Circuit, the Kamalgans used the broom on the Inevitables, taking all the entire trio of games by large margins. All of Kamalgans' totals were above 500, two of them being more than 550. Waidlich made the best individual game of the week, 125, and Ferner's set 120 was high.

Down at the Southwest alleys, West Gun Carriage won two-thirds of its games from Breeding Shells, in the Navy League. Herforth, of the first-named team rolled high game, 112.

Cathedral School is getting in its first act in training in preparation for the indoor meet. The school is a lot of the track team, is leading a lot of likely looking youngsters. Holiday, who rolled 125 in the first round, is the best individual of the school. He is expected to show up well this year.

The addition of "Unit" Brewer is expected to give the track team a big boost. Brewer is counted upon to lead the team in the mile race. He is expected to show up well this year.
